

HDR Update

As we slowly adjust to the change in season, we must now adjust our clocks one hour forward on Sunday October 6 when Daylight Savings begins. It's also the start of the Spooky Season! Don't miss out on the Halloween Party of the year run by Dr Lyndsay Hogan in the Researcher Development team.

Congratulations to Fazeleh Kazemian from the School of Computing for winning this year's Visualise Your Thesis competition with her 60 second PowerPoint presentation on Exascale Algorithms and Software Development for Computational Chemistry Problems. Fazeleh's entry is now in the international competition. Look out for details about how you can get behind Fazeleh.

Set4ANU have mentoring opportunities available. Build your leaderships skills and sign up here.

ANUSA is your student union and elections are on now until 12pm on 3 October. There are general and HDR specific roles up for election so make your voice heard and vote here.
