Conference and group accommodation

Looking for a tailored package?

Situated within the ANU Acton campus, our student residences offer the perfect setting for your upcoming conference or group accommodation over the summer.

Whether it's a formal affair, conference, school camp, or seminars and meetings, our diverse range of rooms and amenities can cater to a multitude of occasions from December to February.

From our spacious dining hall to intimate study and breakout rooms and recreational areas, our conference and group accommodation spaces suit groups of all sizes and purposes.

We will work with you to plan your event, tailoring every aspect to your unique requirements. Additional services such as catering and audio-visual equipment can be arranged at an extra cost to enhance your event experience.

Fenner Hall

Located at the heart of the ANU campus, just minutes from the city center, Fenner offers accommodation for up to 500 guests. Constructed in 2019, Fenner comprises two towers: the North Tower, boasting 9 floors, and the South Tower, featuring 7 floors. These towers are connected through a communal second floor.

Discover the convenience of Fenner's central location, and delight in accessing the communal and social spaces throughout the premises, alongside a café and social space situated on the ground floor.

Highlights of Fenner:

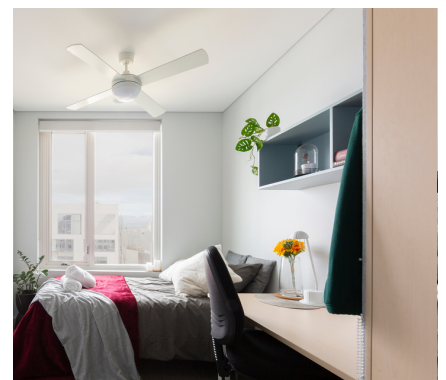

- Proximity to city and Jolimont bus station Situated
- Next to the Kambri Cultural Centre
- Versatile courtyard space
- Terrace overlooking the heart of campus
- Self-catered kitchen facilities
- BBQ facilities

Inclusions:

Bruce/Wright Hall

Reserve either Bruce Hall or Wright Hall, or both, for your next event. With a capacity of up to 800 guests each, these two state-of-the-art facilities were unveiled in 2019. Situated opposite each other, Bruce and Wright Hall are seamlessly linked by an underground commercial kitchen. Both buildings offer an array of communal and social areas throughout, as well as a secluded courtyard and expansive dining halls on the ground floor.

Take advantage of the commercial kitchen for catering needs and explore the multifunctionality of communal and social spaces.

Highlights of Bruce and Wright:

- Rooftop gardens
- Private grassy courtyards
- BBQ facilities
- Close proximity to the Botanic Gardens
- Juliet balcony in almost every room
- Paid outdoor parking
- Access to laundry

Inclusions:

- ANU Wi-Fi
- Reception service
- On-call campus security
