

Crime

Crime insurance provides cover for the loss of property (money or goods) belonging to the Insured directly resulting from the dishonest acts committed by an employee for his or her own personal gain whether acting alone or in collusion with others.

An Employee is defined as:

- Persons in the Insured Entity's regular service compensated by wages, salaries, fees or commissions who you have the right to direct in the performance of their duties
- Directors, trustees, chancellors, registrar, bursar, council members or consultants
- Students, seconders, volunteers or temporary personnel supplied by outside agencies
- Lawyers retained by the Insured
- Trustees, fiduciaries, administrators or officers of pension or employee benefit plans
- Ex-employees for the first 60 days after they cease to work for the Insured Entity

Claims

If you become aware of a potential claim you should contact the ANU Insurance Office and the ANU Legal Office immediately.
