

Suggested signage to display at building entrances

What are the restrictions?

- Charging e-scooters in ANU facilities is no longer permitted, unless you have a written permission from your Director, Dean, or other divisional leaders.
- If you reside in ANU Residential Halls and other residential areas, you may be permitted to charge your e-scooter if the charger has been fitted with a timer.
- Use of imported e-scooters with non-compliant or incompatible charging systems is not permitted on ANU campuses (including residences). For example using a charger with 110V.
- E-scooters and micro-mobility devices must be secured outside University facilities at bike racks. If using e-scooters and micro-mobility devices, have a plan for properly securing it.
- E-scooters and other micro-mobility devices found inside any University facility or improperly parked in places other than bike racks may be impounded at the owner's expense.

Staff and Students are reminded to report incidents to their supervisor and/or through the FIGTREE online incident notification system.
