If a Job is mistakenly moved to ‘Completed’, or needs to be re-opened for any other reason, you are able to do this from the inbox located at Technician> Inbox> Sample Submission/ Service Request. Select the job you wish to re-open and click on the ‘Re-Open’ button in the ‘Actions’ column.
Edits can now be made by opening the job.

A job can be cancelled by a user before the job has been assigned, or by a technician at any stage of the process. If cancelling a job that has already been closed please reopen the job first.

Step C2:

To cancel the Job, click on the ‘Cancel sample submission’ Button, the status will update to ‘Cancelled’. Please note that the job can be cancelled during any stage of the job, but hours already charged to the job will still be charged to the client.
